

History VS. Geography

Reconciled at last

Hi, I'm History.

While I still believe I've contributed more, Geography may have influenced things, too. Good job on the Rockies, by the way. I think they really add something. The Great Lakes, too.

Hi, I'm Geography.

And I still say Canada would be nowhere without me — but I'm willing to concede that History may have had a role to play. For instance, nice bit of work on Confederation.
